COMMENT ON THE FOLLOWING QUOTATIONS

❖ “The must give you satisfaction...As for myself, my great desire is to forget that I belong to this world. The world has no good in it for me, and I am of no good to the world”

COMMENT ON THE FOLLOWING QUOTATIONS

❖ “You dogs...I would willingly ride over any one of you. If I knew which one of you threw that, I would crush him under my carriage wheels.”

COMMENT ON THE FOLLOWING QUOTATIONS

❖ “Listen...This family has long been on my list for their cruelty. When my husband brought home the paper which he found in the Bastille, we read it here, by the light of this lamp. When we had finished it, I told him a secret. That family, treated so badly by the Evermonde brothers, was my family. That boy they killed was my brother. His sister was my sister.”.... “Tell others where to stop, but don’t tell me!”

QUESTIONS

- ❖ Now that you have read and studied all characters in Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities, who is your favourite character? Why?
- ❖ In your opinion, who is the villain in Dickens' novel? Why?

THANK YOU

I wish you all the best.
